SEPTEMBER 17, 2010
OHIO HERITAGE SCHOOL DAY
Tiffin, Ohio

On the Friday before the Heritage Festival, school children from Tiffin and Seneca County schools, as part of their Ohio History education, are invited to observe how things were done in the 18th and 19th centuries. The program is not open to the public and conducted at no cost to the children. If you would like to be part of this educational day, we invite you to fill out the form below.

PLEASE RETURN THIS AGREEMENT WITH YOUR 2010 CONTRACT.

NAME_____

ADDRESS_____

CITY_____ ZIP CODE_____

TELEPHONE _____

EMAIL ADDRESS_____

Describe what you will be demonstrating_____
_____

List any questions you may have_____
_____

Include any additional information, which will be helpful _____
_____

- CHOOSE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

- _____Do you need to be compensated for your time? $_____
- _____I am happy to come at no charge

_____ _____
Demonstrator's Signature Date

_____ _____
Village Chairperson Date

- _____I understand that there will be no sales during School Days
- _____Number Of Lunches Needed

This event starts at 8:00 AM and absolutely no vehicles will be allowed in or out of the gated area until it ends at 2:00 PM.

OHIO HERITAGE SCHOOL DAY will be held September 17, 2010 in Hedges-Boyer Park.

www.tiffinfestival.com